Dear Harold:

Thank you for your letter of July 25, 1989.

The facts you describe and the page enclosed (page 414) are in my opinion not libelous. They may be incorrect statements. It is a shame that neither of the publishers has been responsive to you.

Jill continues to work on her new book.

Jon is now studying real estate in graduate school at New York University. He passed the California Bar and practiced law in Los Angeles for a year and a half, but did not enjoy it.

David has passed the New York Bar and is working at a New York law firm, but does not enjoy the practice of law either.

Keep up the good fight and stay well.

Best,

Richard Gallen
